Bucharest, 28 November 2025

Dear President Nicușor Dan,

My wife and I are delighted to send Your Excellency and the people of Romania our warmest congratulations on the auspicious occasion of your National Day.

I am so pleased that our countries share such strong ties, and I look forward to strengthening further our friendship.

It is my hope and strong ambition that our nations can collaborate to make a positive impact on climate change and environmental issues, which affect us all globally.

My wife and I have great pleasure in conveying our best wishes to you and to all Romanians in the year ahead.

Charles R.
